

Valley Green Tea - Premium Chinese Loose Leaf Tea Specialist

Valley Green Tea

Rou Gui- Wu Yi Tea

Price: $Au 12.00

Rou Gui (Wu Yi tea) belongs to the famous Wu Yi Oolong tea group. It has a distinctive roasted fruit aroma that will last for many steepings.

Rou Gui is one of the Wu Yi teas. Like Da Hong Pao, because it is semi-fermented, it is under the category of Oolong. Since it is produced in Wu Yi mountains' rocky areas, it also belongs to a sub-category of Oolong called 'Wu Yi Rock Teas'. It is characterised by strong stretched leaves and rich dark red color. Apart from all the characteristics of high quality Oolong teas (clear liquid, refreshing first and after taste and fragrant aroma), it has also the distinctive feature of 'Wu Yi Rock teas' - Yan Yun (see below).

Yan Yun: Yan 'rock; Yun 'Rhyme. It is talking about a special feature of the 'Rock Teas'. One could describe it as: dry, clear, clean, elegant. When Wu Yi tea is graded according to quality, a fundamental factor is the place of production. There are three classified grades: full rock tea, half rock tea and plain tea. The locals will describe the plain tea as 'having a muddy taste' or lack of Yan Yun. The appreciation of the 'Yan Yun', like many other aspects of tea enjoyments come with experience.

Quality & Package Size: We offer a one quality grade and one packaging size (50gms) currently for Oolong tea Rou Gui.

Shipping: We ship using Australia Post and advise quotes and expected delivery times with each purchase. This is obtained directly from Australia Post's web site during the final stages of the purchase-checkout process and based on total weight of the package in the cart. Free shipping for orders that have exceeded $80 AUD.

Vendor Information

Yvonne (Monday,
02 March 2009)

Rating:

Love this
tea. I was amazed it tastes good.
Easy to drink. It's not strong.. it has a light taste to it. I recommend this tea.
Nice drinking this tea in the afternoon.